

Mission Statement

Staying Put's mission is to enable and empower women who have experienced domestic abuse; and their children to safely remain in their home and community. Through increased safety options and informed choices, through the provision of effective community services at a time of crisis.